

World Circuit is pleased to announce the release of

Anga Diaz
'Echu Mingua'

(WCD071)

on 21st March 2005

With his explosive soloing and inventive five conga patterns, Cuban musician Miguel 'Angá' Díaz is one of the world's great congueros. 'Echu Mingua', his debut album as a bandleader, is an innovative set that combines a diverse range of styles and influences.

At the heart of this album is a concept that has been referred to as rumbadelica. By bringing together an extraordinary range of elements including traditional Cuban and African music, Latin jazz, hip-hop, symphonic music, contemporary tango, and blending them in the 'Cuban way', 'Echu Mingua' is a unique sounding record that only Angá could have made. Featuring the great Cachaíto López on bass, Malian griot Baba Sissoko, pioneering French DJ Dee Nasty, Magic Malik on flute, and virtuoso Cuban pianists Chucho Valdés, and Rubén González, Angá continues to defy categorization.

The following will be available to help with preparations for the release:
