Conceived in Putney and raised in Nashville 'Derdang Derdang' heralds the new Archie Bronson Outfit sound.

- Steeped in soul music and Scadinavian psych, Faust, Son House and The Gun Club the Archie Bronson Outfit have harnessed their patented sound to produce a truly British music.
- Press in the UK have been getting a little hot under the collar about the record with features in Mojo (written by the editor himself), The Fly, Disorder, Stool Pigeon and Dummy magazine all confirmed. Reviews have already been coming in with Q praising "killer hooks" and Mojo calling it "Magisterial", awarding it 4 out of 5 stars.
- The band tour the UK in March and April, starting with dates with label mates Clearlake before heading out on their own. A special event at the Tate Britain curated by the band has also been confirmed for the 7th April. The end of April / beginning of May they head out to Europe with dates confirmed in Germany, France, Holland and Belgium.
- Not only does the artwork look great, it comes in a special CD digipak and for the LP artwork, a punched sleeve.
