Other things you might want to know:

- Brian Glaze had an extensive tour of duty with the infamous Brian Jonestown massacre.
- This record is produced by Gris Gris wonder boy Greg Ashley, who also plays on it.
- Brian will be appearing at the Birdman Showcase at SXSW 2006.
- Brian describes himself as "Gothic Hippy folk psych crock."
- He responds to everybody who e-mails him on myspace

Birdman Records is proud to present the debut record of psychedelic troubadour Brian Glaze. Glaze is yet another alum from The Brian Jonestown Massacre (and YES he appears in DIG) now paving his own course through the wicked lysergic jungle, with the Gris Gris' Greg Ashley behind the recording counsel as navigator. The record, LET'S GO TO THE SEA, uses the same 60's syrup that darkly tinged The Thirteenth Floor Elevators' EASTER EVERYWHERE, creating a journey through the mind of this modern songwriter as he sings of love: lost and found. Add the homemade sound of the legendary Brother JT, and you can get an idea of what LET'S GO TO THE SEA has to offer. Brian's band includes former Gris Gris members as well as a Hurdy Gurdy man, and other musical sailors (all off to sea).

For fans of: The Thirteenth Floor Elevators, Syd Barret, Brother JT, Badly Drawn Boy, The Gris Gris, Jennifer Gentle, Mayo Thomson, and Skip Spence.
