Cherish The Ladies
Woman of the House
RRCD 7063

Release Date: September 27, 2005

Price: 7.00 euro

Cherish the Ladies is one of the finest ensembles of Celtic musicians on either side of the Atlantic. The American-based group, winner of the Glasgow Celtic Connections Festival's "International Group of the Year" award, recorded Woman of the House in Scotland with many of their talented friends from the festival including Kate Rusby, Sharon Shannon, Eddi Reader, Karen Matheson, Liz Kane and Laoise Kelly. The resulting combination of reels, jigs and heart-rending ballads is a glorious celebration of a thriving musical tradition.

Includes: "The Jolly Seven / The Rascal on the Haystack / Bonkers in Yonkers," "Sweet Thames Flow Softly," "Jigs: Carolan's Favorite Jig / The Rakes of Cashel / Highland March in Oscar & Malvina," "Bogie's Bonnie Belle," "Woman of the House Medley: The Fairy Queen / The Gooseberry Bush / Paddy Kelly's / Woman of the House," "The Hills of New Zealand," "Betsy Belle and Mary Gray," "Fair and Tender Ladies," "Paddy O' Snap / Robin Kellegher / The Cove of Cork," "The Green Fields of Canada," "The Old Maids of Galway / The Sunny Banks / The Flooded Road to Glenties / Free & Easy"
